Our Mission

Pass It On Project is a Staten Island–based, volunteer-run nonprofit dedicated to supporting local families experiencing financial hardship. We focus on providing personalized assistance during the holiday season and beyond.

How We Help

- Personalized wish lists for each family member
- Essential items and holiday gifts
- Direct, in-person deliveries

How Families Are Identified

Families are referred through trusted sources including schools, homeless shelters, and community organizations across Staten Island. This ensures support reaches families in genuine need.

Financial Transparency

Approximately 90% of funds raised are used for direct program support. Remaining funds cover minimal operational expenses such as insurance, software, and administrative needs.

Accountability & Trust

- Registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit
- Transparent financial reporting
- Commitment to responsible stewardship
